

You can change the future of a community. How? By giving hope to its' children - especially those children with special needs. How do you give hope? By supporting organizations like Partners For Progress.

Your kindness today will give hope to a child like Olivia. “Partners for Progress provides state of the art interventions for children with physical, cognitive and emotional disabilities using wonderful therapeutic horses as the tool. My daughter Olivia has been riding for 12 years (and) has made incredible progress in many areas. I do not believe she would be walking if it wasn't for this therapy. We are blessed beyond belief to have found the talented staff who work in this program.” - - Olivia's Mom

Olivia is like many of the participants at Partners For Progress - vibrant, loving, and driven to achieve their goals. Children with special needs have incredible abilities, a great deal to give, and the desire to contribute, but, they need help to reach their dreams - your help. Your partnership helps to keep the doors of hope open for these children, changing the future of your community and the quality of life for those like Olivia.

Change the future for you, your community, and someone like Olivia. Support the participants at Partners For Progress. Your support gives the hope to overcome challenges. Your support gives the hope to achieve dreams. Your support demonstrates to others how to help those like Olivia. Give hope today, and watch how the futures of those with special needs changes our communities tomorrow!
